Alloya Announces Board of Director Changes

Cheryl DeBoer, CEO of Advia Credit Union, has announced her resignation from Alloya's Board of Directors. Cheryl has over 15 years of service on our (and prior) corporate credit union Boards. She has been an integral part of Alloya's success, serving not only as a Board member, but also holding the positions of Vice Chair (2015-16) and Secretary (2014-15).

As CEO for Advia Credit Union, Cheryl has grown her credit union from $650 million to over $1.3 Billion in assets over a 5-year period, putting it in the top 3% of credit unions nationwide. She led her team through the acquisition of a bank, expanding her credit union's footprint in Wisconsin. This is not something that is seen every day in the credit union industry and Cheryl's vision and leadership are helping to expand the movement in new ways. We wish Cheryl all the best in her future endeavors and appreciate her time and dedication to the Alloya family.

We are also pleased to announce that Bernard "Bernie" Williams has joined the Board effective January 18, 2017. Bernie has been part of Alloya's supervisory committee since the merger with CenCorp three years ago, and was serving as the Chair of the committee at the time of this appointment. Bernie has been the Chief Executive Officer of Wanigas Credit Union since 2000. Bernie has over 28 years of financial services experience and we are excited to welcome Bernie and his leadership to the Board.
