Why Choose Alloya?

By becoming a member with Alloya, your credit union is making a strategic decision to bring business advantages to your credit union and solutions to your members, in addition to premium member benefits with the option to contribute capital to become a Capital Member, or become an Associate Member without capital requirements. As a member-owner of Alloya, your credit union can leverage the aggregated power that is 1,400 credit unions strong (more than any other corporate in the nation). Alloya's expansive cooperative network strengthens the corporate's collective buying power to deliver affordable, comprehensive products and services.

Everything you need to run a credit union can be found at Alloya. There is no need to evaluate, coordinate, secure or manage multiple vendors. Everything works, and everything works together – so you can concentrate on your members.

And it doesn't stop there! Service is Alloya's real point of differentiation – it's not just what we do, it's how we do it. Going above and beyond is Alloya's standard. Every decision at the corporate is guided by the all-important question: What is in the best interest of the credit union members we serve? Alloya continually builds upon measures that benefit members and adhere to credit union values and cooperation.
