

Liquidity

When your credit union needs access to funding, Alloya is your one-stop liquidity resource. Choose from a variety of competitively priced products to meet immediate, short-term and long-term demands.

The Lending team will work alongside you, helping you to evaluate suitable products, compare terms and pricing, and facilitate the process from application through implementation.

Meet Your Needs

Alloya's Lines of Credit are continually accessible, so they can be used when needed and multiple loans can be connected.

Enhance Effectiveness

Alloya's full-service Loan Participation Program manages the entire process, greatly reducing the time, effort and expenses associated with the multi-step loan participation process.

Satisfy Members

Through the Student Loan Program, your members will be able to obtain student loans through your credit union rather than through another financial institution.
