

Foreign Currency

Alloya's Foreign Currency program enables your members to obtain the currency they will need for their international travels through your credit union. Through Alloya's program - at no cost to your credit union - your members can receive foreign currency at the branch or have it conveniently delivered to their home or office. OFAC security screening is provided.

Alloya's Foreign Currency program enables credit unions to:

- Offer 70 foreign currencies that cover over 120 different countries, available to members at very competitive exchange rates (optional next-day delivery is available)
- Return unused currency conveniently and securely
- Place orders on behalf of members or allow members to order from your website
- Establish delivery of the currency to your credit union or directly to your members' home or office
- Earn commission on each transaction

Exceed Members' Expectations

Optional next-day delivery of 70 currencies to your branch, or even the member's home or office, without costs or administrative burdens for your credit union.

Find Peace of Mind

Alloya's foreign currency partner handles OFAC security screening and manages secure delivery.

Realize a New Stream of Income

Your credit union earns commission on each transaction.