

Retention and Destruction

Member information is retained based on current legal and business requirements.

When data is no longer required to be stored, it is destroyed in conformance with the board-approved policy. This policy stipulates the destruction of specified data by vendors which can supply the appropriate certification of destruction.