Credit Union Executives Celebrate Fifth Annual Leadership Symposium in Chicago

Naperville, Ill. (September 10, 2019) – Celebrating its fifth year, the Credit Union Executive Leadership Symposium hosted by Alloya Corporate FCU brought together credit union leaders from across the nation to hear from a wide-array of speakers presenting on industry trends, the economy and leadership. The symposium was held at the Westin Chicago River North in Chicago, Illinois and had 160 attendees from 108 credit unions, representing 16 states.

“This year’s symposium was one to remember,” said Tim Bruculere, Senior Vice President, Membership. “Keeping with tradition, credit union leaders from across Alloya’s national membership gathered to share ideas, make new connections and gain valuable insight to help their credit unions thrive. We were thrilled to celebrate the fifth anniversary of the symposium with these passionate individuals.”

Featured speakers included keynote speaker and financial expert Suze Orman; award winning motivational speaker Sam Glenn; Alix Patterson, Callahan and Associates; Sundie Seefried, Partner Colorado CU; Sundeep Kapur, Digital Credence; Mike Mucilli, CU Business Group; Jessica Dawson, Gallup; Steven Rick, CUNA Mutual; Charley McQueen, McQueen Financial Advisors; John Collins, Alloya Corporate FCU; and Tom Slefinger, Balance Sheet Solutions.

Next year’s symposium will return to Chicago, Illinois at the Westin Chicago River North, September 9-11, 2020.
