Trend Analysis

Alloya’s fixed rate certificate deposit balances continue to remain at historically high levels. Fixed rate investments have been purchased to limit the economic exposure created by fixed rate certificate deposits. Investments are marked-to-market while the corresponding deposits are held at book value, resulting in unrealized losses that will continue to grow as market rates increase. The September Fed meeting outlined a rate hiking cycle that was more aggressive than the market consensus prior to the meeting. Therefore, Treasury yields shifted significantly higher during the month.
